THE DENTISTS OF VIRGINIA

A Session of Great Interest at Hot Springs.

DR. I. B. SMITH PRESIDENT

He Succeeds Dr. Bridgforth, of This City-Many Valuable Papers Discussed-Meet Next Year in Charlottesville.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) HOT SPRINGS, VA., July 24 .- The Virginia State Dental Association convened at the Homestead Hotel, Hot Springs, Tuesday, July 21st.

The association was called to order by the president, Dr. B. Bridgeforth, of Richmond, who called on Dr. J. Hall Moore to invoke the divine blessing,

On the call of roll of members, Drs. Irvin B. Smith, R. L. Simpson, Walker, George F. Keesee, J. Hall Moore, and W. H. Ewald, all officers of the and W. H. Ewaid, all officers of the association, responded, as did also Drs. E. J. Applewhite, L. H. Bragg, R. W. Bragg, Jr., H. W. Campbell, J. A. Calvin, L. M. Cowardin, W. J. Cowardin, Ed. Eggleston, W. H. Haller, R. E. Hamlet, J. H. Hartman, Charles Hutchinson, F. A. Lee, R. C. Lewis, W. E. Norris, William Pilcher, W. H. earson, W. H. Savage, F. W. Stiff, J. P. Stiff, A. L. Stratford, R. H. Walker, C. T. Womack, L. W. Wilson, C. A. Newland and — Ehart.

Drs. George Hardy, of Baltimore; George H. Wilson, Cleveland, O.; J. M. Prossy and H. V. Desportes were introduced as visitors and accorded the privileges of the floor, the same being also ex-leges of the floor, the same being also ex-tended to the resident M. D's. of the ANNUAL ADDRESS.

ANNUAL ADDRESS.

The annual address of the president was read. This was replete with many suggestions and recommendations, and in toto was pronounced one of the best ever read before the association. In view of his long and active service in behalf of the association, Dr. J. Hall Moore was by a rising vote elected to life membership.

On the call for reports from standing committees, Dr. Ed. Eggleston read a paper on "Porcelain Inlay Work." After discussion on the same by Drs. Norris, R. H. Walker, Pearson, Hardy, J. L. Walker, the subject was passed temporarily to be resumed at the afternoon session, at which time Drs. Eggleston and Hardy gave clinics in the office of Dr. R. W. Bragg, Dr. L. M. Cowadin in his office gave a clinic on the "Callahan Treatment of Roots." Clinics were also given by Drs. A. L. Stratford and H. W. Campbell, demonstrating the use of nitrous oxide gas.

At the night session Dr. J. H. Hartman

At the night session Dr. J. H. Hartman read a paper on "Our Mission." The paper read by Dr. J. P. Stiff on "The Treatment of the Teeth and Oral Cavity During Typhoid Fever" elicited special discussion, in which Dr. Willams, M. D., of Richmond, was conspicuous. This paper led into a lengthy comparison of the lationship between the dentist and the Drs. Earman, of Greenville, and L. D.

Drs. Earman, of Greenville, and L. D. Pilcher, of etersburg, were elected to active membersbip.

STATE DIVISION.

The committee to divide the State into eastern, middle and western districts for the holding of sessions presented their report, which was adopted.

The paper read by Dr. Irvin B. Smith on "Dental Legislation by the Colleges" was one which dealt largely in the future as to the requirements of all graduates.

Dr. H. W. Campbell read a lengthy Dr. H. W. Campbell read a lengthy paper on "Dental Education and Litera-ture."

ture."

On motion of Dr. Norris the Executive Committee were authorized to expend money so as to obtain the very best clinics within their power.

Dr. R. E. Hamilet read a paper on "Orthodontia." This was discussed by Drs. R. H. Walker, Applewhite, Moore, F. W. Stiff and Hardy. Stiff and Hardy.

Dr. E. A. Bogue, of New York, having been detained on the way by a personal accident, sent a paper on "The Relations of the Principal Molars in Man to the Other Teeth," which was discussed at Other Teeth," which was discussed at much length.

Dr. Pearson read a most instructive paper on "Actinomycosis and its Treatment." Cases along this line were also reported by others.

Dr. Simpson presented a chart showing his method of fastening a crown on badly decayed anterior roots.

Dr. R. W. Bragg read a paper on "Pyorrhea and its Treatment." This paper gave rise to a description by many of equally as many modes of treatment.

Dr. George H. Wilson of Ohio, gave a clinic demonstrating his method of using valcanite in prosthodontia.

The Executive Committee reported that they had audited the accounts of treasurer, showing a healthy balance on hand.

urer, showing a healthy balance on hand.
A DONATION MADE.
A donation of $25 was made to the International Dental Congress to be hold

In St. Louis, 1994.

The following officers for next year, were elected: Irvin B. Smith, Richmond, president; R. L. Simpson, Fincastle, first-vice-president; J. L. Walker, Norfolk, second vice-president; L. M. Cowardin, Richmond, third vice-president; George F. Keesee, Richmond, recording secretary; J. Hall Moore, Richmond, corresponding secretary; W. H. Ewald, Portsmouth, treasurer; E. J. Applewhite, Newport News; E. P. Beadles, Danville; A. L. Stratford, Richmond; Executive Committee. in St. Louis, 1904.

Stratford, Richmong; Executive.

Charlottesville was selected as the next place of meeting. The three days spent in the transaction of the business of the association were made the more delightful by the extreme courtesy of the manager and assistants of the Homestead, and the resident dentists and physicians at this most beautiful of health resorts.

The reception given by Dr. L. M. Co-The reception given by Dr. L. M. Co-wardin on Tuesday night at his hospita-ble cottage will ever he remembered as one of the most delightful events in the history of this time-honored associations.

ANNUAL TOURNAMENT

Mount Jackson Club to Have its Even on Thursday Next.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch,)
WOODSTOCK, VA., July 24.—The an-WOODSTOCK, VA., July 24.—The annual tournament of the Mount Jackson Tournament Club will be held on next Thursday, Elaborate preparations for the entertainment of a large crowd is being made. An address of welcome will be delivered by Mayor Dr. C. A. R. Moore. This will be followed by a base-bull game and rag tag parade. At 2 o'clock the charge to the knights will be delivered by J. H. Dulin, and the cornation address will be delivered by M. E. Stickley at 25.20 P. M., followed by the grand ball. This section of the Vailey has a larger crop of wheat this year than for a number of years present the averaged has fached us high as twenty-five bushels per acre.

Munici Clinton, colored, of Strasburg.

JUMPING UP

Is a great deal harder than jumping down. And yet people who have been for years running down in health expect to jump back at once. It takes years generally to make a man a confirmed dyspeptic, and he cannot expect to be cured in a few days.

There is no quicker means of cure for dyspepsia or other forms of stomach trouble than by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures covery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition and builds up the body with sound flesh and solid muscle.

flesh and solid muscle.

"I was taken sick two years ago, "writes Rev. W. H. Futterson of White Cloud, Ala, "It what the doctor through two gratic troubles are gratic troubles as the control of the con most past traveling about; had got down to 114 pounds. I went and bouth six butles of Golden Medical Discovery, and got the Fellets and began following directions. When I had taken about five bottles I felt very much better and weighed one hundred and thirty-eight pounds. I will say that Dr. Flerce's medicines are a God-send to poor suffering was fined $50 and sent to jail for six months by Squire Richard Lee on Thursday. He was charged with getting drunk and creating a diaturbance in Strashers, where he appeared on the street armed with a knife and razor, and was captured only after being knocked down with a club by the officers.

Accept no substi-tute for "Golden Medical Discovery," There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach. Pleasant Pellets cure Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellet biliousness and sick headache.

An attempt is being made to have the Washington authorities permit the removal of the postoffice at Woodstock to the opposite side of Main Street from its present location. It is meeting with bitter opposition.

INTERESTING MEETING

Convocation of the Colored Episcopa Churches of Southern Virginia, Churches of Southern Virginia.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BEDFORD CITY, VA., July 24.—The convocation of the colored Episcopal Churches of the diocese of Southern Virginia last night concluded its very interesting session at St. Phillip's Church. The most striking feature of the meeting was the resolution against the idleness of the negro race and the crime that leads to lynching. It also passed the leads to lynching. It also passed to discuss that prevails.

The body was a representative one, and was presided over by Rev. J. S. Russell, of Lawrenceville, archdeacon of Southern Virginia. It was opened with religious services on Wedneaday morning, conducted by Rev. W. P. Burke, of Norfolk, and Rev. J. B. Brown, of Mecklenburg county. The address was delivered by Rev. W. P. Burke, of Norfolk. The convocation was organized by the election of Archdeacon Russell as chairman; Rev. W. P. Burke, secretary, and C. L. Simmons, treasurer.

The missionary meeting was held in the evening, conducted by Revw. C. L. Simmons, J. B. Brown and Rev. C. L. Simmons, J. B. Brown and Rev. C. L. Simmons, J. B. Brown and Rev. C. L. Simmons, J. Rrown and Rev. C. L. Simmons, J. B. Brown and Rev. Dallas Tucker.

Archdeacon Russell's annual report was lucker. Archdeacon Russell's annual report was Archdeacon Russells annual report was very interesting, and gave an account of the splendid work being accomplished by St. Paul's Industrial School at Lawrenceville, a work that cannot have the highly commended to all who have at heart the solution of the great problem of the elevation of the nestor face.

YOUNG WOMAN ENDS HER LIEE BY DROWNING

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HEWLETT, VA., July 24.—The body of Miss Nannie Askew was found in Offley Mill Pond yesterday morning. For a number of years the unfortunate woman has made her home with the family of Mr. C. C. Cox, of Offley, but only during the past week had she exhibited any sign of insanity, and though closely watch, she succeeded in escaping in her night clothes and drowned herself, as she had repeatedly threatened to do during the fast few days.

Miss Askew was about thirty-five years past few days.

Miss Askew was about thirty-five years of age, and leaves a brother and a sister.

MR. SADLER URGED TO STAND FOR SENATE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

POWHATAN, VA., July 24.—Mr. Joseph P. Sadler, a prominent young lawyer of this place, is being strongly urged by his friends throughout the county to become a candidate for the Senate of Virginia from the district composed of the counties of Chesterfield, Powhatan and Gocohland and the city of Manchester, Wr. Sadler is well known throughout the district, and should he determine to run, would make a warm canvass.

FIRE FROM CIGAR STUMP DID DAMAGE

(Special to The Times-Disnatch.)
WARSAW, VA., July 24.+Fire this afternoon, which is reported to have had its origin from a lighted eight stump thrown upon the pier and at Whelion Wharf, Lancaster count, destroyed several thousand dollars worth of property.
The pier seads and the shucking houses of 1.2. Oakley, Coulbourn Bros., Israel California of the Whelion Wharf, Lammel were destroyed. The shucking house of the Whealton Packing Company was partially burned.

Lewisburg Conference.

Covington (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

COVINGTON, VA., July 23.—The Lewisburg District Conference is now being held in the Methodist Church at this place, A number of ministers and delegates, as well as many visitors, as the attending the conference. The missionary institute held a session Thursday morning, and the opening service of the conference took place Thursday night.

TEACHERS BY THE HUNDRED.
There are twelve hundred teachers in attendance upon the Summer School of Methods at Charlottesville. Walter Edward Harris will tell about the school and its work in an Illustrated half-page article in The Sunday Times Dispatch.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN.
Half-tone pictures of some of the most beautiful women at Newport this summer will be one of the interesting features of to-morrow's Times-Dispatch. The letters from the Virginia resorts will also be bright and interesting.

Read in The Sunday Times Dispatch what Edward W. Townsend ("Chimmie Fadden") has to say about the Police-Gambling Combination in New York.

MUST PAY PILOT FEES

Virginia Association Determined to Make Collections.

SCHOONERS ATTACHED

Law Upheld by Recent Decision of the Suprems Court of Appeals-Masters Will Take it to the United States Supreme Court.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NEWPORT NEWS, VA., July 24.—The Virginia Pilots' Association has started out in earnest to collect the compulsory pilotage fees from the schooners and sailing vessels entering the Virginia capes.

In the Corporation Court of this city to salling vesses entering the virginicapes.

In the Corporation Court of this city today warrants of attachment were sworn out against Captain C. E. Haskell, master of the schooner M. D. Cressey, and Captain Pierce, master of the schooner
Charles A. Campbell. Two attachments were sworn out against the Cressey and one against the Campbell.
Captain O. E. Edwarde, agent for the Pilot Association, announced to-day that every other sailing vessel entering Hampton Roads, against which the association has a claim for pilotage, under the act that has recently been decided constitutional by the Supreme Court of Appeals for Virginia, will be attached as fast as service can be secured.

From now on for some time the sheriffs of Newport News, Warwick county, Elizabeth City county, Norfolk county and the city of Norfolk will have their hands full. It is expected that several hundred vessels will be attached during the next few months.

This action on the part of the association is occasioned by a recent decision by the Supreme Court. For some time the masters of sailing vessels refused to accept the services of the pilots, and a text
The title of this case was Darden against Thompson, Darden being a member of the association, and Thompson the master of a schooner that refused to accept a pilot, the pilot suing for the fees allowed by law.

The State law provides that vessels entering Virginia waters must take on a lowed by law.

The State law provides that vessels entering Virginia waters must take on a pilot and allows pilotage fees, only vessels under seventy tons being exclude from this provision. The masters have been fighting the law for some time, and since their defeat in the Supreme Court of the State they announce that they will carry the case to the United States Supreme Court.

Captain R. G. Marshall, of Portsmouth, is one of the leading attorneys for the captain R. G. Marshall, of Portsmouth, is one of the leading attorneys for the association. Senator Daniel and several other leading attorneys in the State are associated with him. Captain Marshall was here yesterday and acted in the cases.

OFFICERS CHOSEN. At a meeting of the Citizens' Rallway and Electric Company the following officers were elected for the next year:
W. A. Post, president; W. J. Payne, vice-president; H. H. Dalton, secretary; Franz Von Schilling, auditor: W. J. Naw, treasurer; Charles M. Franklin, assistant treasurer; Mr. Clanahan, of Baltimore; Samuel R. Regester and D. C. Zollikoffer, of Richmond; W. J. Payne, W. A. Post and George A. Schmelz, Board of Directors.

HORRIBLY INJURED

Flagman Has Muscles of His Legs Badly Torn.

Flagman Has Muscles of His Legs Badly Torn.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER, VA., July 24.—Frank Wolf, of Hagerstown, a flagman on the Cumberland Valley Railroad between Winchester and the former city, was severely injured last Wednesday at Unwood. Wolf was reloading a barrel of molasses into a solitary car with which the main train was endeavoring to couple.
The train came back with a rush, and the berrel was hurled against the side of the depot, pinioning Wolf's legs. The frame wall was crushed and Wolf's legs were pushed through the opening. The muscles in the calves of both legs were terribly torn and tha shock and injuries made the man very ill.

The congregation of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South at Front Royal, has decided to begin the erection of a $12,000 church, Rev. G. D. White is pastor.

Because Charles Rudolph owed him
fity cents for work in repairing a bleyde, William D. Parker, a young man of Stephens City, threatened to shoot the former one day recently. The wrathy young man flourished a revolver and alarmed that section of Stephens City,
The tragedy was averted in its inceplency, and the doughty warrior arrested. Yesterday Parker paid a fine and costs amounting to $15, and was required to give security to keep the peace for one year. Parker is now cogitating upon the awful difference between 50 cents and

awful difference between 50 cents and

DISTRICT CONFERENCE

Session at Warrenton Church Very Interesting-Delegates Chosen.

teresting—Delegates Chosen.

(Special to The Times-Disputch)
WARRENTON, Va., July 24.—The District Conference of the Warrenton Methodist Church, which has been in session here during the past week, was brought to a close last evening. The conference was widely attended and was successful from every point of view.

During yesterday's proceedings a report was made on the spiritual state of the church by Rev. J. L. Kibler. The eport was made on the spiritual state of the church by Rev. J. L. Kibler. The separation of the Epworth Leagues was read by Rev. W. H. Woolf.

Those elected to attend next annual conference at Fredericksburg during March, 1904, are: Dr. J. O. Hodkin, of Warrenton; J. F. Pollard, Alexandria; E. M. Rouse, Rennington; G. W. Lacock, of Hamilton. The next District Conference will be held at Manassas, Va.

Bolow is a list of the delegates who attended:

L. Plerce Butler, S. W. Goodson, Mr. Mette, G. W. Embrey, W. Budner, F.

Bolow is a first of the delegates who attended:
L. Pierce Butler. S. W. Goodson, Mr. Meetze, G. W. Embrey, W. Budner, F. H. Saunders, S. J. Crouch, Waiter Calvin, Mr. Shackleford, A. P. Glimer, J. W. Wright, Professor Blackwell, Professor Charles Melton, Frank Burch, J. W. Wheeler, W. W. Millan, D. L. Cowne, C. P. Price Joshua Beach, H. M. McLearen, F. D. Vaughn, W. H. Sheeve, A. H. Compton, Emmanuel Pierce, Mr. Wernsr, E. M. Rouse, John Woolf, J. H. Hamill-

SUMMER NO MORE RASHES

INSTANTLY RELIEVED BY A BATH WITH

And a single application of Cuticura Ointment, purest of emollients and greatest of skin cures. For summer rashes, eczemas, itchings, irritations, chafings and inflammations, for bites, stings and 'sunburn, for lameness and soreness, heat and perspiration, incidental to outdoor life, nothing so soothing, cooling, healing and refreshing for young or old as a bath with Cuticura Soap, followed by gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment, purest of emollients and greatest of skin cures.

Bold throughout the world. Conteurs Son, Mr. Chalmers, So., Resolvent, So. In form of Chosolas Content of Charles of Chosolas Content of Charles of Charle cians of Georgia. When it became known in the State Senate that he intended to be married his colleagues gave him an ovation.

HOME WEDDING

Mr. J. J. Hankins and Miss Annie E

Eunnell Married.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKBBURG, VA., July 24.—
Miss Annie E. Bunnell, sister of Mr. W.
H. Bunnell, of this city, and Mr. J. J.
Hankins, of Kanawha Falls, W. Va., were married yesterday at Lake Farm, the home of Mrs. James W. Jones, in Caroline county. Rev. Dr. John Pollard, of Bowling Green, officiated.
Miss Bessie Hankins was maid of honor and Mr. J. A. Jones best man. Messrs, Rufus O. Cooper, of this city, and Buck
Hankins were ushers.

Wilkerson-Wootton.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CLARKSVILLE, VA., July 24.—On Wednesday Miss Hettie, the pretty and attractive daughter of Captain and Mrs.
W. W. Wootton, of this place, was married at 11 o'clock to Colonel Henry Wilkerson.

ried at 11 o'clock to Coloner Benry ... kerson.
The church was beautifully dressed in green and white, and crowded with admiring friends. Rev. John Lewis, pastor of the church, officiated.
Colonel Wilkerson has been for some years the resident buyer of the American Tobacco Company at Enfield. N. C., where, for the present, at least, they will make their home.

Dunn--Ellison.

Composition of the control of the co

Residence Burned.

Residence Burned.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

GORDONSVILLE, VA., July 21.—Fire totally destroyed the residence of Mrs.

E. Taylor, who lives about a mile and a half northeast from Gordonsville, Friday morning about 10 colock. How the fire originated is not known.

Mrs. Taylor is a widow lady, and the loss is very heavy.

The Tuncerul reday afternoon, was held to clock, interment at Maplewood Cemetery, under the auspices of Waddell Lodge, No. 22, A. F. and A. M., of which deceased had for many years been a member. He had also been a consistent member of the Gordonsville Baptist Church for a long time.

Killed b Train,

WARRENTON, VA., July 24.—It was learned here this morning that Mr. Wayne Glascock, who lives a few miles from Warrenton, was struck and killed by a passenger train near Broad Run station yesterday evening, while returning from the Manassas Horse Show. The man was literally cut to pleces—both legs, one arm and his head being severed. He is a brother of Henry Glascock, well known here.

Sold Intoxicants.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STORMONT, VA. July 23.—At the regular term of Middlessx County Court day the only important case disposed of
was that of Lucius Molor, of Urbanna,
Va., who was found suity of selling intoxicating drinks and fined $20 and cost.

THE PEOPLE ALL

WEDDING OF NOTE

Senator J. Rice Smith, of Georgia, Marries Mrs. Anna P. Heard.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER VA., July 24—State
Senator J. Rice Smith, a native and former resident of Berryville, Clarke county, and Mrs. Anna P. Heard were married last Monday at The Oaks." Mrs. Heard's home, in Summerfield, Ga. Rev. W. S.
Bragg, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, officiated, and the ceremony was witnessed by the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. After the ceremony Senator and Mrs.
Smith left for Lithia Springs, from whence they will go to Atlanta and stay wantil the summer session of the Georgia Legislature adjourns. Mr. Smith is one of the most prominent men and political contractions of the Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Owens & Minor Drug Co., Special Agent

VACANCIES

Strikers in Petersburg Have Applications on File.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC SOLD

Mr. Joseph W. Seward Buys It from the Dunlop Estate for $7,000.

Richmond Woodmen of World Visit Petersburg. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PETERSBURG, VA., July 24.—Several others of the striking street car men made application to the company to-day. Their applications were filed, but they cannot be given positions at this time. There is now but one regular run to be given out, and there are probably fifteen or twenty what it can towards taking back as many of the men as possible, but, of course, there are some that will not accepted by them. The Academy of Music, on Bank Street,

The Academy of Music, on Bank Street, has been bought from the Dunlop estate by Mr. William E. French for Mr. Joseph W. Seward. The price paid was $7,000. The transfer has not yet been made, as the sale will have to be confirmed by the court. Mr. French for several seasons has successfully conducted the management of the theatre in Petersburg, and will remain as manager under the new ownership.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD.

Hickory Camp, Woodmen of the World, of Richmond, with forty-five members, visited Oakwood Camp, in this city, last night. The visitors were met at the train by a committee from the local camp and escorted to the camp hall, on Tabb Street. Sovereign W. D. Morriss welcomed the visitors on the part of the camp. Sovereign John B. Allen, of Hickory Camp, replied to his address. Addresses were delivered during the evening by Mr. A. McA. Parker, J. D. Redwood, W. L. Cavedo, of Richmond, and J. S. Hawkins, W. A. Perkins and others of the local camp. Music was rendered by R. E. Lee Band, and refeshments served. The visitors returned at midnight.

Mr. John Laun, keeper of the National freshments served. The visitors returned at midnight.

Mr. John Laun, keeper of the National Cometery near Petersburg, has been notified by the War Department of his transfer to the National Cemetery at Loudoun Park, near Baltimore. He will be succeeded by Mr. James H. Savage, keeper of the National Cemetery at Winchester, Va.

of the National Cemetery at Winchester, Va.

A lawn party will be held on West High Street Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings for the benefit of the organ fund of St. John's Episcopal Church.

Miss Annie Watson has returned after a pleasant stay at Virginia Beach.

Mrs. Robert Harrison and Gaughter, Mrs. James Warwick, have returned from a stay at Old Point.

Misses Margaret and Lillian Butcher, of Richmond, returned to their home this morning, after a pleasant visit to friends in Petersburg.

Miss Catharine M. Rahlly, of St. Vincent's Hespital, has returned to Norfolk after a two-weeks' visit to relatives in Petersburg.

after a two-weeks' visit to fenalives in Petersburg.

The funeral of the late A. G. Rogers took place this morning from the Second Presbyterian Church.

The Petersburg Elks who attended the Grand Lodge in Baltimore have returned home much pleased with their reception in the Monumental City.

Mr. Hurst is well pleased with the patronage the Cummings Stock Company is receiving at the Casino, and the patrons are equally well pleased with the company.

The fire department recently installed a fine telephone service between the sev-eral fire stations. The different houses can call up each other without notifying "central."

Rev. S. C. Hatcher, who went to the Cold Sulphur to convalesce, has returned, and is much improved in health. Mr. Hatcher expects to fill his pulpit at Market-Street Church at both services Sunday.

INSANE MAN AT LARGE

Fayetteville May Buy Water-Works, Hospital Enlarged. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., July 24.— George B. Shepherd, aged about fortyfive years, has escaped from the insane asylum at Raleigh, and is supposed to be asylum at Ranegh. and is supposed to be making his way to this place, where the homestead is still situated in the suburbs, and where the family was for generations prominent, though none of its members is now here.

generations prominent, though none of its members is now here.

Major W. F. Robertson, of Wilmington, and Messix, W. L. Holt and L. A. Williamson, constituting the Board of Appraisers, will probably meet to-morrow or Monday to assess the plant of the Fayettevile Water Works Company, with a view to its purchase by the municipal government.

The Marsh-Highsmith Hospital on Green Street will be still further enlarged by an annex erected between the main building and the charity ward, to accommodate ten patients with sun parior, steam and cold baths.

The success of this institution has been remarkable, and is an object lesson in the results of tenacity of purpose. Drs. J. H. Marsh and J. F. Highsmith are both country raised boys, one born in Cumberland county, and the other in Sampson, who wedded their profession in early manhood, and are now rapidly climbing to the head in both medicine and surgery.

Cumberland county fruit raisers inti-gery. Cumberland county fruit raisers intimate that unfavorable weather at the beginning of the season cut off the watermelon crop at least one-fourth. Yesterday ge grower, who generally makes shipments besides supplying the market, declared that he would let a large grover, who heavy shipments besides supplying the local market, declared that he would let his whole crop go for what its fertilizers cost him. Muskmelons are also short.

Mr. F. H. Cotton, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the graded schools of Hope Mills, the thriving manufacturing town seven miles south of this city, offers for sale $7,000 in school bonds, to run twenty years at five per cent. A to run twenty years at five per cent. A certified check for $100 must accompan

LOST OF APPETITE is commonly gradual; one dish after another is set aside. It is one of the first indications that the system is running down, and there is nothing else so good for it as flood's Sarsaparille—the best of all tont-

The Children's Page of The Sunday Times-Dispatch will be the best yet printed. The names of the Winners of the Mother Goose Paint Books in the first contest will be given.

A Good Home.

Ten minutes from Broad Street, 5 cent fare; slate roof, water, sewers; 100 feet front-$3,500; beautiful place, photo at office. REAL ESTATE TRUST CO.

MANN LAW HAS DEFECTS

Negro Barkeeper Acquitted J. E. Noble Instantly Killed by Under It.

WHOLE PILE WAS UPSET MINOR DRANK IN SALOON

Policeman Saw Boy Drinking, but Because a Man Bought the Liquor the Saloon Keeper Was Acquitted-Petition in Bankruptcy.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., July 24.-Common wealth's Attorney Tilton declared this morning the new Mann liquor law is worthless. He says it imposes heavy penalties and modifies the offense. The case in court was that of Walter Harris, arrested and fined in the Police Court on the charge of selling liquor to a minor. Harris is a negro bar-keeper for Sanders, and the warrant was issued to a policeman who saw a boy drinking in the saloon where Harris was in charge and arrested him. When the case was called in the Corporation Court the first time the defendent did not appear, and the statement was made in court that he had field. He returned and on trial this morning the jury acquitted him. The evidence was that Harris had sold liquor to a man, and the boy had drunk the

Judge A. R. Hanckel, of the Corpora-tion Court, instructed the jury as fol-

"The court instructs the jury that the burden of proof is upon the Common-wealth to show beyond a reasonable coubt that the accused is guilty of the wealth to show beyond a reasonable coubt that the accused is guilty of the offense charged, and you are instructed that it is not enough for the Commonwealth to prove that minors were drinking in the bar-room conducted by the accused. The sale of liquor must have been made by the accused to the minor himself. The offense under the statute is not made out by proof of a sale in the bar and in presence of the accused." The Mann law prohibits the sale of liquor to a minor; the old law prohibited the sale, barter, gift and delivery of liquor to a minor; the old law prohibited the sale, barter, gift and delivery of liquor to a minor by the keeper of a barroom. Commonwealth's Attorney Tilton is dusgusted. He says the Mann law might as well be torn up.

PETITION IN BANKRUPTOY.

Lafayette Bayley, of Eastville, a farmer, filed a petition in the United States Court as a bankrupt, stating his assets as $768 and liabilities as $2,165.28. Some of the largest creditors are as follows: Witz, Biddle & Co., Baltimore, $349; American Fertilizer Company, Norfolk, $231; Roche & Co., Baltimore, $234; C. W. Fentress, Norfolk, $42; Greenbaum & Co., Baltimore, $235; John L. Farant & Co., Norfolk, $20; T. James Fernley, Norfolk, $20; T. James Fernley, court as a bankrupt, stating his assets as $768 and liabilities as $2.15.28. Some of the largest creditors are as follows: Witz, Biddle & Co., Baltimore, $301; Singtiff, John & Co., Baltimore, $301; Singtiff, John & Co., Baltimore, $301; American Fertilizer Company, Norfolk, $21; Roche & Co., Baltimore, $242; C. W. Fentress, Norfolk, $42; Greenbaum & Co., Baltimore, $224; C. W. Fentress, Norfolk, $42; Greenbaum & Co., Baltimore, $235; John L. Franat & Co., Baltimore, $245; C. W. Franat & Co., Balt been received from there when the body was taken in charge this morning. The coroner investigated and found that paralysis was the immediate cause of death, the injury in the head may have been the remote cause. bern, N. C., but no communication been received from there when the

been the remote cause. SOUTH NORFOLK CITIZEN INJURED. SOUTH NORFOLK CITIZEN INJURED.
This afternoon about 1:40 o'clock Mr.
W. C. Chapel, a resident of South Norfolk, and assistant foreman of the Surfy Lumber Company, was quite painfully hurt, having his right hand badly lacerated. The accident occurred in the planing mill and was caused by the hood of the machinery falling on him.
DANGEROUS PLACE TO SWIM.
Mayor Riddick sent a letter to Chief of Police Vellines directing him to prevent boys from swimming in the slip at Mc-Cullogh's Dock. He considers that the drowning of two boys there this summer shows the place to be dangarous. The boys will not, be allowed to go in the water there.

H. ST. GEORGE TUCKER IS TO MAKE ADDRESS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LEESBURG, VA., July 24.—Hon. Henry
St. George Tucker, of Lexington, is announced to address the Potomac Baptist Association, which meets in Leesburg
August 18th, 18th and 14th. The association is composed of the counties of Loudoun, Fauquier, Prince William, Fairfax, Alexandria and Stafford, and contains about sixty churches. Mr. Tucker will deliver an address on the Southern educational movement.

ORGAN GRINDER LOSES FIGHT FOR EARLDOM

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 24—The Committee on Privileges of the House of Lords to-day decided against the claim of William Turnour Thomas Poulett, Viscount Hinton, the former organ-grinder in the streets of London, to the Earldom of Poulett, and in favor of the late Earl's con, William John Lydston Poulett, by a later marriage.

HIS SKULL CRUSHED

Falling Timber.

Fell With a Crash, Catching the Unfortunate Man Under It-Negro Helper Had Leg Mashed, While

Two Others Escaped.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Noble, aged forty years, a white laborer, employed by the Angola Lumber Company, was accidentally killed this morning at 9 o'clock by being struck on the head by a pile of falling lumber. His skull was crushed in the front and back, and he died instantly. Noble and three negroes were transferring a pile of 3,000 feet of lumber from transfer car to a platform. The men were pushing the lumber when the trucks caught and dumped the entire pile toward them. Noble could not get out of the way, and the entire pile of lumber struck him on the forehead. He was procked to the platform with terrible force. The combined blows crushed his skull in two aces. Alex Judge had his leg caught, but his

CHURCH NOTICES.

BAPTIST.
GROVE-AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH
(Grove Avenue and Beech Street)—Rev. J. B.
HAWTHORNE, D. D., pastor.—Preaching at 11
A. M. by Rev. T. C. M'HAE, of Blacksburg,
Va. Sunday school at 0:15 A. M.

Va. Sunday school at 9:15 A. M.
GRACE-STREET BAPTIST CHURCH (COR. ner Grace and Foushee Streets)—Rev. CHARLES
S. GARDNER, D. D., pastor, Sunday school
9:30 A. M. Preaching by the pastor at 11 A. M.
No service at night. Prayer meeting Wednosday at 8:15 P. M.
CALVARY HAPTIST CHURCH (CORNER
Pine and Grace Streets)—Rev. WESTON BRU.
NER, D. D., pastor.—Subject at 14 A. M.
"Friendship and the Friends': 3:15 P. M.
"Can the Young Man Climb Alone?" Leat in series to young. Cordial welcome.

METHODIST.

METHODIST.

Services at 11 o'clock A. M. and S:15 o'clock P. M.

CHURCH OF THE COVENANT—REV. J.

CALVIN STEWART. D. D., pastor.—Bivine services to-metrow at 11 A. M. and S:15 P. M. Sunday school at 0:30 A. M. Devotional service Wednesday at 8 P. M. All welcome.

WESTHINSTER PRESENTERIAN CHURCH (Grove Avenue and Eim Street).—Services at 11 A. M. and S:15 P. M. by Rev. T. R. English. D. D. Sunday school at 0:30 A. M. Mid-week service Tuesday at 8:15 P. M. Welcome to all.

MARSHALL-STREET CHRISTIAN CHURCH (Marshall Street between Graham and Hancock)—Rev. B. H. MELITON, pastor.—Preaching Sunday at 11 A. M. and S:16 P. M. Sunday school 9:50 A. M. Christian Endeaver Society 7:15 P. M. Mid-week prayer meeting Wednesday S:13 M. M. Welcome to Coley 7:15 P. M. Mid-week prayer meeting Wednesday S:13 M. M. Street between Main and Floyd Avenup.—Preaching to-mercow by Rev. C. O. WOD-WAED, of Petersburg, Va., at 11 A. M. and S:16 P. M.

EPISCOPAL.

THE MONUMENTAL CHURCH (BROAD Street, below Twelfth)—Rev W. E. EVANS, D. D., Rector,—Holy communion S A. M.; norming service at 11 o'clock, No afternoon service during July and August, CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.

PIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST,—Services Sundsy morning at 11:15, Subject, "Love," Wednesday evening meeting at 8:30 o'clock. No, 1201 Grove Avenue, All are invited.

AN EDITOR

Found That it Pays to Take His Wife's Advice.

Mr. A. U. Grouby, editor of the Abbeyille, Ala., "News," has the following kind words for Chamberlain's Coile, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy: "Several days ago I was taken with something like bliicus dysentery in a malignant form. I took medicines for two or three days, but got worse all the time. We had a bettile of Chamberlain's Coile, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, and my wife prevalled upon me to take a dose.
The one dose relieved me within an hour,
and I have not been troubled with it since.
I consider this the most wonderful bowel remedy I have ever seen." For sale by all druggists.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN.
Half-tone pictures of some of the most beautiful women at Newport this summer will be one of the interesting features of to-morrow's Times-Dispatch. The letters from the Virginia resorts will also be bright and interesting.